Senior Associate, qualified as a solicitor in 1990, joined Lupton Fawcett in 2016 after 16 years with Irwin Mitchell in Leeds.

Julie has experience of most areas of commercial property work including acquisitions and disposals, including development and site assembly, property funding and secured lending, from single properties through to portfolio acquisitions, but with a bias towards landlord and tenant and property management. Julie has acted for landlords including an international estate agency firm in respect of its property holdings, a property investment fund in respect of its national portfolio, individual and corporate landlords in respect of their investments including industrial estates, offices and retail premises and tenants from national high street retailers to local shops and offices, corporate occupiers in the industrial and office industries, and leisure operators.

Wider experience includes provision of support within corporate and insolvency transaction and private client matters.

Personal Information

Outside work Julie enjoys spending time with her family and friends along with spending time outdoors walking and gardening. She also enjoys most sporting activities, in particular running and squash.
