Sarah is an Associate Solicitor specialising in Tax. Sarah has previously trained and worked at international legal firms in Leeds. Sarah is able to assist on a range of tax matters covering corporate tax, property tax, VAT (including VAT litigation matters) and employment related taxes.

In particular, Sarah regularly advises on:

- corporate transactions (both share and asset deals), advising on the drafting and negotiation of documents for strategic disposals and acquisitions.
- property transactions, carrying out complex SDLT analyses and advising on the VAT, capital allowances and CIS implications.
- employment matters, in particular advising on the tax treatment of termination packages and PAYE compliance.

Sarah has provided both internal and external training on SDLT and VAT. Sarah has also presented on Making Tax Digital for the Leeds Women in Tax Group.

Sarah has written articles for Tax Journal.

Personal Information

Sarah was born in Sheffield and has moved back to the city to spend more time with family and friends. Sarah enjoys walks in the Peak District, horse riding and attending a variety of gym classes.
