What previous attendees have said about our "Introduction to Employment Law"

"The slides and other materials provided were clear and easy to understand with no 'jargon'."

The session was really interactive and our managers were engaged throughout.

We were delighted when one of our Managers commented that "he hadn't realised what an important job HR did until they'd attended the course" – result! This was the reaction we were looking for.

This is an invaluable course in a relaxed and safe environment."
