

Natasha Dean
Trainee Solicitor,
Commercial Property

DD: 0113 280 2024

E: Natasha.dean@luptonfawcett.law

Natasha is a Trainee Solicitor in Lupton Fawcett's Commercial Property Department and joined the firm in August 2017, after graduating the LPC and MSc from the University of Law in Guildford. Prior to that Natasha studied Law at Sheffield University and Tilburg University in the Netherlands.

Natasha assists with a range of corporate work, including the drafting of ancillary documents for a range of transactions such as, the acquisition and disposal of companies, management buy-outs and group reorganisations. Natasha also deals with Companies House matters for each transaction.

Personal Information

Outside of work Natasha enjoys watching a variety of films and socialising with friends. Natasha was previously a trained figure skater, and continues to enjoy ice skating, as well as sketching, painting and photography.