

Donald Maloney
Senior Solicitor, Regulatory & Corporate Defence

DD: 0113 280 2165

E: donald.maloney@luptonfawcett.law

Donald joined Lupton Fawcett in April 2019 to add his expertise and skills to the Regulatory and Corporate Defence Department.

Over the course of the last twelve years Donald has gained wide experience of defending individual and corporate clients being investigated or prosecuted for criminal, fraud and road traffic cases. Donald has particular expertise in defending road traffic investigations and prosecutions. He understands how important it is to protect a client's driving licence. Donald provides clients with pragmatic advice which clients like and trust.

Personal Information

Donald holds a WTF Taekwondo Black Belt First Dan, he was also part of the team which won the Hillsborough Memorial Tri-City Shield in 1989. 10 Years later Donald competed in the GB Taekwondo Team selection tournament for the Sydney Olympic Games. Now in his spare time he enjoys managing his son's football team.